

TULSA WORLD

Spotlight Music Preview

By JENNIFER CHANCELLOR World Scene Writer
2/15/2008

Where's G. Love?

On Wednesday, musical omnivore G. Love will dish out his meaty beats and succulent melodies, all with a tall glass of his trademark tart-yet-sweet lyrical lemonade.

Underground favorites G. Love and Special Sauce are back at Cain's Ballroom, promoting the band's 2006 blues-infused hip hop album, "Lemonade" and last year's live DVD/CD release, "A Year and a Day."

In the 13 years since the band's self-titled debut, the group has sold more than 1 million albums worldwide.

Not bad for a former city street performer from Philly.

Recently recuperated from a knock-down, drag-out fight with a tough flu bug that forced him to cancel an Iowa show, he'll be rested and ready to rap philosophical come Tuesday, his publicist assured.

Tickets are $23, available at Reasor's, Starship Records & Tapes, Cain's box office, by phone at (866) 443-8849 and online at www.tulsaworld.com/gettix.

Tristan Prettyman will open. Doors open at 7:30. More at www.tulsaworld.com/GLove or www.tulsaworld.com/Cains.